LuxSE welcomes Saxo Bank as Trading Member

Luxembourg 9 September 2020: The Danish fintech leader Saxo Bank A/S and the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (LuxSE) today celebrated Saxo Bank's new status as a Trading Member of LuxSE.

The announcement marks an important step forward for both institutions, as the door to LuxSE's more than 37,000 securities is now open to Saxo Bank's 620,000 international clients, including all sustainable securities displayed on the Luxembourg Green Exchange (LGX).

Unlocking diverse investments

Today's news brings an exciting new addition to Saxo Bank's already extensive offering by unlocking further possibilities of portfolio diversification for its clients. As the world's leading exchange for the listing of international debt securities, LuxSE gives investors access to a wealth of international instruments and unrivalled entry to the world's sustainable securities.

"It is with great pleasure that we welcome Saxo Bank as a new trading member. Investors are one of the driving forces behind the economic recovery from COVID-19, and our role is to facilitate transparent trading through secure and reliable platforms on our regulated markets. Saxo Bank's client-centric approach and advanced technological capabilities make it a strong addition to our list of trading members," commented Robert Scharfe, CEO of LuxSE.

Investing in the future

Founded in 1992, Saxo Bank A/S is Denmark's leading, regulated bank for online trading and investment, with a strong global footprint. The bank's trading platforms, SaxoTraderGO, SaxoTraderPRO and SaxoInvestor process around 125,000 trades per day. Saxo Bank is LuxSE's first Scandinavian-based trading member.

Henrik Juel Villberg, Global Head of Trading & Market Access at Saxo Bank added: "We aim to be the best facilitator in global capital markets for our clients. By joining the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, we expand our international multi-asset offering, particularly in bonds and equities. We look forward to offering our clients better prices and deeper liquidity as a result. Over the past years and particularly in 2020, we have had significant growth in the number of clients looking to take control over their investments. This is an important trend that we hope to support by also joining the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.”

Enhancing trading options for smaller-sized trades

Addressing the needs of professional and private investors looking for opportunities in small-scale trading, the Luxembourg Stock Exchange established LuxXPrime last year, a specific trading window on LuxSE’s trading platform dedicated to retail-sized orders in fixed-income securities. The LuxXPrime selection now counts more than 900 securities, including 150 green, social and sustainability bonds. As a Trading Member of LuxSE, Saxo Bank—as well as its clients—get automatic access to LuxXPrime.

About the Luxembourg Stock Exchange

The Luxembourg Stock Exchange (LuxSE) is the gateway to access international investors. With more than 37,000 listed securities, including 32,000 debt instruments, from 2,000 issuers in 100 countries, LuxSE is one of the world's leading exchanges for the listing of international, financial securities and offers a unique and integrated service offering covering listing, trading and information services.

In 2016, LuxSE launched the Luxembourg Green Exchange (LGX) and became the first exchange in the world to operate a platform dedicated entirely to sustainable financial securities. LGX has become a meeting place for impact-conscious issuers and investors, and has a leading global market share of listed green, social and sustainability bonds worldwide.

LuxSE also operates a specialist subsidiary, Fundsquare, which provides services to support and standardise cross-border distribution of investment funds.
