According to the Luxembourg legislation* implementing Article 21 (1) of the European Union Directive 2004/109/EC of 15 December 2004 on the harmonization of transparency requirements, issuers with securities admitted to trading on a regulated market should disclose regulated information and ensure effective dissemination of such information to the public within the European Union.

The CSSF (the banking and financial activities supervisor and regulator in Luxembourg) has published in page 5 of its Circular 08/337 of 6 February 2008 an exhaustive and explicit list of regulated information** to be published (www.cssf.lu).

In order to help issuers to fulfill their publication obligation, the Luxembourg Stock Exchange offers a Financial News Service that gives them the possibility to publish their notices / press releases for announcement of regulated information on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange website www.bourse.lu and simultaneously to distribute them to other European Union financial media.

The following procedure is required by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange since announcement of regulated information shall be communicated to the media in an unedited full text and avoid the risk of data corruption. Therefore, the Luxembourg Stock Exchange will only accept Issuer notices / press releases in PDF format accompanying the present subscription form.

Notices / press releases received after the market closure of a given trading day are disclosed at the latest before the market opening of the next trading day.

Issuer announcements: EUR 300 per release with disclosure on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and dissemination to the media. An administrative fee of EUR 50 will be added if the invoice is not paid with a credit card.

The Luxembourg Stock Exchange applies a fee of EUR 300 (excl. VAT) per document published. An administrative fee of EUR 50 will be added if the invoice is not paid with a credit card. The fees will be paid in Euro (EUR) to the bank account specified from time to time by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, and the customer undertakes to pay all banking charges incurred in connection with the payment of the fees, preferably by credit card or otherwise by transfer into the bank account stated on the invoice. Any payment owed by the customer to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange must be made not later than 30 days after the relevant invoice is sent out by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. Any query regarding an invoice must be raised by the customer before payment becomes due. Failure by the customer to pay within the period mentioned above any amounts due under this subscription form shall make the customer liable to pay to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange interest on the balance in the official gazette ("Mémorial A n°66") and as may be amended from time to time.

The Luxembourg Stock Exchange accepts VISA, MASTERCARD and AMEX.

All prices are expressed exclusive of VAT.
